

Importing Personal Property Into Argentina

IMPORTING HOUSEHOLD GOODS & PERSONAL EFFECTS

DUTY-FREE ENTRY IS PERMITTED IF THE FOLLOWING REQUIREMENTS ARE MET:

- The shipper has resided abroad and used the goods for at least 1 year. Shipper may have visited Argentina for no more than 60 days to gain free entry.
- Importation is made any time between 3 months before and up to 6 months after the date of arrival by the shipper, proven by the seals stamped into the passport.

Notes:

- The shipper does not need to be present in Argentina when the shipment arrives, provided he/she issues a notarized power of attorney to another party, who must submit shipper's valid passport to customs.
- New goods and automobiles are subject to duties and taxes.
- Foreigners with a temporary visa may import household goods, personal effects and one automobile on a temporary basis only.
- Duplicate appliances are not permitted entry.
- One air and one sea shipment is permitted.
- All documents must have the shipper's name exactly as it appears on his or her passport.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS:

For All Shippers:

- ✓ Detailed inventory (English or Spanish)
- ✓ 2 Original Bills of Lading/Original Airway Bill
- ✓ Original passport
- ✓ Permanent visa (copy is ok)

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS (CONTINUED):

For Argentina Citizens:

- ✓ Consular Certificate
- ✓ Certificate of Residence issued by the Argentine Consulate declaring residence abroad for at least 1 year.
- ✓ Proof of residing abroad continuously for at least 1 year (with no stays in Argentina exceeding 60 days) through original stamps contained in his/her passport.

For Foreign Citizens:

- ✓ Permanent Resident Visa issued at origin
- ✓ Permanent Entry Visa stamped on Passport by immigration authorities at airport of entry.

For Foreign Citizens with Temporary Residence Visas:

- ✓ Temporary residence visa for at least 1 year.
- ✓ Must provide bank guarantee to Customs until permanent visa is obtained for goods to be cleared

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS:

For Diplomats:

- ✓ A Diplomatic Exemption (Franchise) must be obtained by Embassy from the Argentine Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

RESTRICTED/PROHIBITED ITEMS; IMPORTING CARS & PETS

RESTRICTED/DUTIBALE ITEMS:

- Alcohol is restricted to 2 bottles per person
- Tobacco and foodstuffs are subject to import duties and taxes. Importation is not recommended.
- Argentine Customs checks all appliances (televisions, amplifiers, radios, etc.) to verify whether they are used or not.
- New items are subject to high duties.
- Gifts are dutiable
- Sports weapons require proof of ownership

PROHIBITED ITEMS:

- Drugs and narcotics
- Pornographic or obscene materials
- New computers
- Color TVs and new TVs
- Unauthorized weapons or firearms
- Ammunition and explosives

IMPORTATION OF MOTOR VEHICLES:

- High duties and taxes must be paid on imported vehicles including cars and motorcycles. Only diplomats are exempt from paying duties on vehicles.
- Diplomats may bring in used or new cars.
- Returning Argentines may import used vehicles if they have resided abroad for at least 1 year and have not returned to Argentina for a stay exceeding 60 days.
- Temporary Residents may import used vehicles duty and tax-free for 8 months, at which time the car must be re-exported, unless an extension for an additional 8 months is granted. If the shipper obtains a Permanent Resident Visa, then the vehicle can be nationalized and imported with the payment of duties and taxes.

IMPORTATION OF MOTOR VEHICLES (CONTINUED):

- Foreign Residents may import used vehicles if they have a Permanent Resident Visa.
- Shipper must obtain proper vehicle license and registration and automobile insurance prior to importation.
- One vehicle per person can be imported into Argentina.
- The original title or registration and invoice must be in the name of the consignee.
- Vehicle cannot be sold within the first year of importation.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS FOR MOTOR VEHICLES:

- ✓ Original Certificate of Title
- ✓ Original Certificate of Residence
- ✓ Motor vehicle sales tax receipt
- ✓ Original Purchase Invoice with Visa stamped by Argentine Consulate
- ✓ Two Original Bills of Lading
- ✓ Vehicle Catalog and License Certificate
- ✓ "Certificado De Pre-Embarque" (Pre-Shipment Inspection Certificate)

IMPORTATION OF PETS:

- Cats and dogs are allowed duty-free entry.
- Other animals are prohibited.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS:

- ✓ U.S. Interstate International Certificate of Good Health Examination for Small Animals (APHIS Form 7001) legalized by the Argentine Consulate at origin.
 - ✓ This certificate can be obtained from a veterinarian's office or from your state's USDA office. Form must be translated into Spanish.
 - ✓ The form requires the signature of a veterinarian from the USDA within 10 days prior to the pet's departure.
 - ✓ This certificate must be stamped by the Argentine Consulate at origin.
- ✓ Rabies Certificate

IMPORTING WORKS OF ART/ANTIQUES & FIREARMS:

IMPORTATION OF WORKS OF ART OR ANTIQUES:

- There is generally no problem with importing works of art and antiques, provided articles are used and in reasonable quantities that do not imply commercial intents.
- Precious metal or stone objects are also permitted entry under the same guidelines as works of art and antiques, if the quantities are reasonable for a private collection.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS:

- ✓ Ocean Bill of Lading or Air Waybill
- ✓ Detailed Packing List
- ✓ Shipper's passport

IMPORTATION OF FIREARMS:

- To import a firearm a special permit (Renar-Registro Nacional de Armes) from the local authorities is required. Customs will retain the firearm until the shipper obtains such a permit.
- Firearms should be loaded near the container doors for easy access.

REQUIRED DOCUMENT:

- ✓ List the firearm separately on the inventory

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS:

- Mercovan Argentina, 2002
- Edelweiss Spedition Worldwide Movers, 2001
- Argenmove, "Customs Regulations for Argentina", 2001
- 4moversww.com, April 2000.
- Consulate General of the Republic of Argentina in Chicago, "Requirements to enter a pet into Argentina," <http://www.uic.edu/orgs/argentina/pet.shtml>, February 2000.

The information presented herein is based on customs data available at the time of printing and is frequently subject to change without notice. It is the responsibility of the owner or importer of the household goods to comply with the current customs restrictions, regulations, and duties of the country to which the goods are imported. We strongly advise customers to contact the consulate or embassy of the destination country for the most current information on customs regulations, restrictions and duties for importing household goods, personal effects and vehicles.